

Color Activity Worksheet

Finding the objects.

In each row find all the objects that match the color word. Answer the questions to each row.

There are many things from my feet to my head that are the color red.

In the row below circle all the red objects.

Point to the object that is not red. What color is it?

There are things that are not red too. In fact many things can be blue.

In the row below circle all the blue objects.

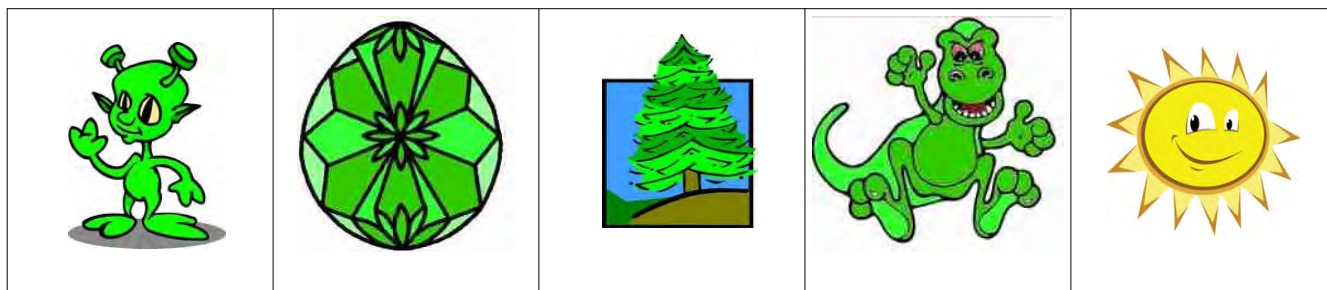

Point to the object that is not blue. What color is it?

Other objects that can be seen that are the color green.

In the row below circle all the green objects.

Point to the object that is not green. What color is it?

Color Activity Worksheet

Finding the objects.

In each row find all the objects that match the color word. Answer the questions to each row.

Green is such a nice fellow but so is the color yellow.

In the row below circle all the yellow objects.

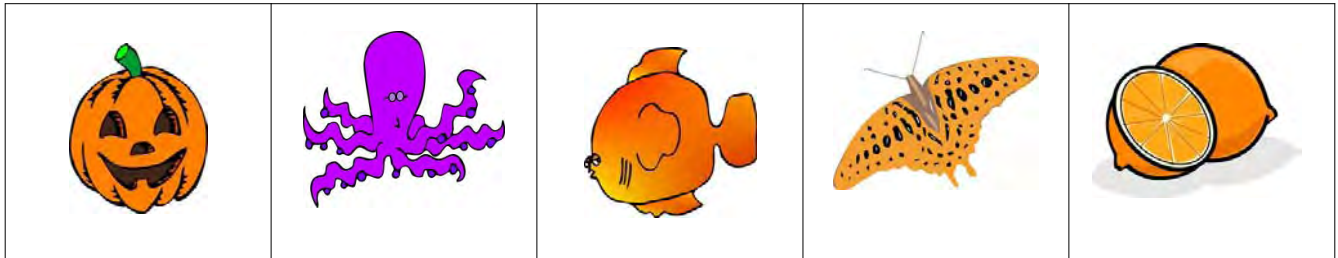

Point to the object that is not yellow. What color is it?

Orange and yellow look a lot the same. But they are different colors and go by different names.

In the row below circle all the orange objects.

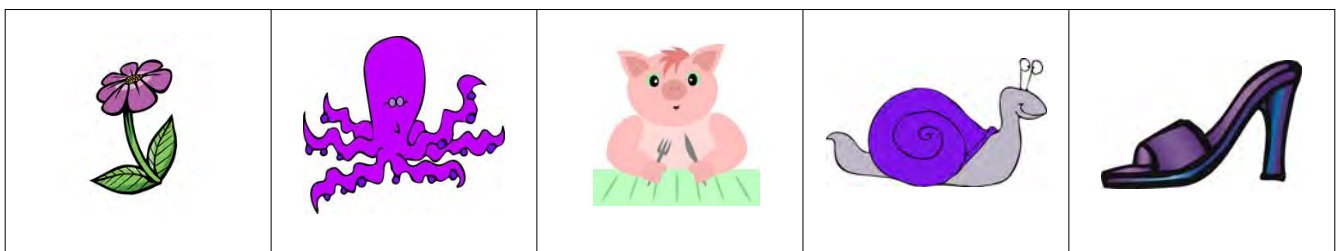

Point to the object that is not orange. What color is it?

There are many red objects and many blue. But I see purple when I mix these two.

In the row below circle all the purple objects.

Point to the object that is not purple. What color is it?

Color Activity Worksheet

Finding the objects.

In each row find all the objects that match the color word. Answer the questions to each row.

I like purple but I think. Many of these objects could also be pink.

In the row below circle all the pink objects.

Point to the object that is not pink. What color is it?

As I continue to look around I see many things the color brown.

In the row below circle all the brown objects.

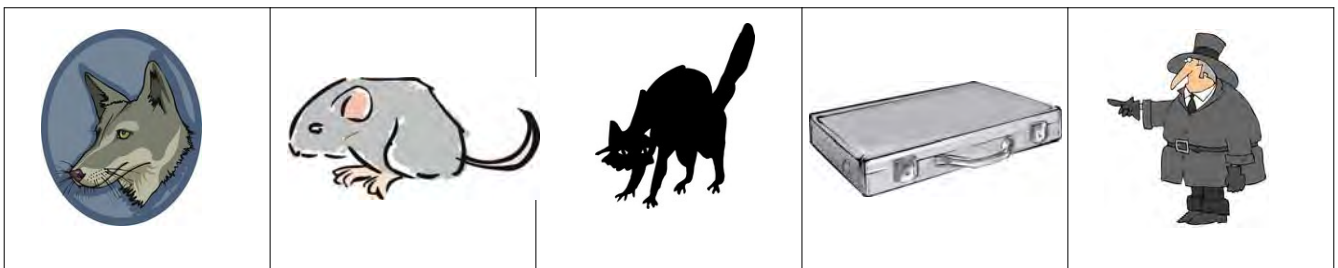

Point to the object that is not brown. What color is it?

I would have it no other way than to see things that are the color gray.

In the row below circle all the gray objects.

Point to the object that is not gray. What color is it?

Color Activity Worksheet

Finding the objects.

In each row find all the objects that match the color word. Answer the questions to each row.

I decided to take a whack and finding objects the color black.

In the row below circle all the black objects.

Point to the object that is not black. What color is it?

There are opposites like day and night. Just like the opposite of black is white.

In the row below circle all the white objects.

Point to the object that is not white. What color is it?

And as I look and turn my head I am back to the color red.